

*Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor*

Whereas, Cheryle Jones has devoted 20 years, 7 months and 14 days to the service of the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Cheryle first began employment with the South Dakota Human Services Center on August 16, 1982; and,

Whereas, Through the years, Cheryle has cared and given of herself to make each patient, family, and staff feel comfortable and worthy; has received many thanks over the years for the care she has provided; and has a heart of gold, immense patience, and a compassionate nature, as well as a wonderful sense of humor; and,

Whereas, Cheryle will be remembered by many for her unwavering dependability and dedication, not only for a job well done, but to patients and her fellow staff; and,

Whereas, Cheryle is the proud wife of Boyd, mother of four children; Greg, Gail, Jennifer, and Matt, and grandmother of five grandchildren; Lindsey, Shelby, Dillion, John, and Janae; and,

Whereas, Cheryle will spend much of her retirement golfing, bowling, taking trips to romantic and exotic places (if Boyd is good, she may take him with her), spending time with her husband, children and grandchildren, and taking care of the family still at home (Butkus, her dog; Buff and Deacon, her cats; and Herbie Husker, her cockatiel who has left his mark on her life - hair, shoulders, glasses, etc. - and must be kept out of her chili); and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this employee:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 29, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with Cheryle's family, friends, and co-workers to wish her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
M. Michael Rounds, Governor
